Pension Panos is a traditional building 500m from the port of Katapola. It is decorated with the Aegean colours, white and blue and has a big garden with flowers on the front. The owner Mr. Panagiotis Psihogios organizes hiking for the guests of the pension in famous ambulatory routes. The warm hospitality as and the tranquil and romantic surrounding will set the ideal scenery for your holidays. Amorgos Island belongs to Cyclades and lies at the easternmost end of the complex, very close to Astipalea. It is the island of contrasts. Mountains and green fields join in with the Aegean blue and create unique pictures. It seems almost untouched by time, since the inhabitants keep traditions alive. Lovers of nature and hiking will discover a hidden paradise in Amorgos if they choose to follow one of the ambulatory routes suggested by the locals. All rooms have balconies or verandas with nice view to the bay or the garden. They are spacious and light with all the necessary comforts in order to make your stay easier. They are equipped with A/C, direct telephone, satellite TV, kitchenette and mini fridge.
