Fagotto Rooms are inside a listed Venetian building dating from 1540, built at the time to house the Venetian headquarters. Now fully renovated and tastefully decorated with objects from bygone eras, Fagotto Rooms operates as a charming hotel all year round. Its location is on Aggelou Street, one of the most beautiful and picturesque streets of Chania Old Town. The building consists of 2 comfortable double rooms, which have high windows with balconies overlooking the picturesque streets of the Old Town and, at the top floor a spacious one bedroom apartment suitable for 4 persons with a large flowered terrace. All rooms are equipped with shower room, refrigerator, coffee making facilities, VIP Amenities / Toiletries, flat-screen TV, free internet access and air condition. Fagotto Rooms are comfortable and maintain a traditional style with modern, elegant touches. Located in Topanas quarter, the hotel ensures easy access to many shops, cafes and restaurants on the atmospheric Venetian promenade and the Old Town, while the sandy beach of Nea Chora is only at 10 minutes' walking distance. There is free public parking near by the hotel.
