Sofia Village is a small, comfortable hotel, built with special care, offering a pleasant stay and answering all the expectations of a traveler in the Cyclades. The hotel is built on the outskirts of Mykonos town, in the area known as the Fine Arts School (400m from the town) Guests may relax in the lovely garden that surrounds the building; other available amenities are a sunny breakfast room with veranda, television, and telephone. Buses taking guests to several wonderful beaches are only a short walk from the hotel.
