Rooster! Founded two years ago and came to fill the morning and the nightlife of the historic center of Athens! Located in Agia Irini 4 Square in the center of Athens behind the old Cathedral. Fully renovated combining modern and classical decoration, with reference to the distinctive black facade. Allows you from early morning until late at night to enjoy the best coffee - drink city but also causes you to try the culinary 'Artists' curated by John Vougiouko. Emerged for the best quality products at very affordable prices and added to the hot spot on the world list of Louis Vuitton as the ideal place for a break from life in Athens charged inviting and more restless artistic life of the city since the Rooster supports young artists hosting exhibitions: paintings, photography, etc.
