First contact of Lampros Maris with jewellery, was at the age of 12, working as artisan in a goldsmith's workshop, learning the art of jewellery creation. The passion and love for jewellery leading him, in a young age, to open his own workshop in Athens and at the same time joined in sales.

His business thinking led him to Agios Nikolaos, in Crete, where he opened his first jewellery store in 1976.

After almost 50 years of continuous activity, in the same place, this small store has expanded and today dominates one of the largest and most imposing Jewellery Stores in Europe. The company Lampros Maris SA has also a workshop in Athens and a branch at the hotel Elounda Beach Resort & Villas.

Lampros Maris SA jewellery stores have a large handmade variety of jewelry and lots of famous and luxury brands in the industry of goldsmith. Furthermore, it represents the top-selling watch brands in the world.
