Allegria is located 200 meters from the sandy beach of St. Peter. Restaurants, a bakery and a supermarket are within 250 meters. The port of Gavrio is 2 km. The lively Batsi is 5 km. Enjoyable short walks to nearby villages will lead you to the most beautiful beaches on the island. The beach has received the honor of "Blue Flag" for its clean water and coast. In one part of the vast sands are two beach-bars with sun loungers. Few meters further you find the school "Andros Surf Club", which organizes windsurfing and stand up paddleboard (SUP) lessons original and advanced, for ages over 7 years old. You can also rent modern equipment. For diving enthusiasts, the school "ScubAndros" nearby, promises a unique experience of a journey to the magical depths of the seas of Andros. Andros is an island rich in natural beauty and green because of the abundant water. For those who love trekking, Andros offers interesting routes, crossing landscapes of lush trees, walnuts and oaks, with streams and waterfalls, with traditional verdant valleys, bringing visitors closer to nature. The island has a network of labeled paths with a total length of 85 km.
