Althea Village hotel is a stunning, four-star summer resort, ideal for family vacations with kids, located in the traditional village of Daratsos, only 4km away from Chania town center. A wide set of 155 new and recently fully-renovated rooms, apartments, family rooms, junior suites, and suites, is combined with a spectacular landscape of blooming gardens, idyllic flowers, romantic paths and multicolored alleys. Althea Village, a place where nature is paired with Greek traditions and Cretan hospitality, is located only 600 meters from the magnificent, organized, sandy beach of Agioi Apostoloi.

Designed to embody all the grand values and attributes of a Greek traditional village, Althea Village offers extraordinary amenities that will spoil you and your family through impressive facilities that include restaurants, bars, swimming pools, kids' club, playroom, animation, massage therapies, gift and local products' shop, tennis court, fitness center, daytime activities and sensational theme nights.

With attention to detail, and thanks to the professionalism of the staff and management, Althea village hotel provides a new definition for comfort, level of services and cleanliness, and sets a new standard for hospitality experiences through its amenities, its facilities and its excellent comportment to all of the guests.

Enjoy, experience and create your story in this amazing, unique summer Cretan resort that reflects the atmosphere of the Mediterranean Greek island of Crete.
