With respect and loyalty to the Cretan land, expertise in production developed over many generations, contemporary and self-owned facilities, certified according to the international standards and regulations, ensuring the safety of its products with regular checks, the LYRAKIS FAMILY provides consumers with Cretan products of high quality, with great nutritional value, which are based on extra virgin olive oil.

The LYRAKIS FAMILY is one of the few companies in Crete to have a vertically integrated production unit as well as a traceability system for its products which are checked in every step of the process, so it offers olive and olive oil lovers products of optimal quality.

The aim of the company is to star in the international market by promoting and establishing the use of extra virgin olive oil and olive-based products, as it already has significant exportation activity in a total of 38 countries and it has received awards in international competitions.

The LYRAKIS FAMILY envisions the constant search and creation of innovative products with high nutritional value, which are worthy of wider spread and becoming an integral part of every consumer's diet.
