In the outskirts of Nemea, District of Korinthos, Peloponnese lies the small picturesque village ‘Leondio’ (Liondi), famous for its vast vineyards and the rich winemaking tradition of its people. Amidst these surroundings of unique, scenic, natural beauty, we, the Darsinos family, run and cultivate our own vineyards, with full respect to our long-lasting wine making tradition and produce one of the finest grape variety wine ‘Agiorgitiko’. Being firm believers in the idea that excellent wine can only be accompanied by excellent food, we have created Liondi Restaurant, at the foot of the historical hill of The Acropolis. Authentic Greek Traditional Cuisine, pure ingredients, combined with knowledge, taste, and passion guarantee the inspired recipes that awaken one’s senses.
