Acropolis Museum Boutique hotel combines high quality service with a location in one of the finest parts of Athens.

This very special hotel is housed in a classical building that recently has undergone a complete renovation (2007) and has 23 charming rooms divided over the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th floors. It is located just a few steps from the Acropolis and Plaka, and adjacent to the new Acropolis museum.

The total renovations combine all amenities and comforts that the modern sophisticated traveler has come to expect while maintaining its authentic style and character. Coco - Mat mattresses are made of natural materials such as sea grass, horse hair and coconut.

The hotel reception will be happy to assist with city maps and guides, tourist information and suggestions for exploring this historic area of Athens and further abroad. With only a handful of rooms, service at Acropolis Museum Boutique Hotel is intimate, personalized but also discrete.
