Travel to Paros agency was established in 1992.

Since establishment we managed to provide numerous services towards our clients courteously and responsibly.

Constantly progressing we managed, based on business results – to rank among leading travel agencies in our market.

Our services include various aspects of your holidays in Paros, ranging from supplying ferry and air-tickets to booking lodging in quality hotels all over Greece, but especially in best hotels in Paros.

Our fleet of comfortable cars, ideal for island exploring, is offered at the best prices and is at our client's disposal for rent for any period of time needed.

Since in Paros, we offer various excursions to nearby islands so that our clients can experience the beauty of Cyclades in their own glory. Excursions are held by private boats and some even include guided tours on islands.
