Scattered all across the Pelion peninsula are villages of all sizes, both mountainous and coastal. The charming village of Paltsi is a large hamlet located 53km from the city of Volos, and 13km from the neighbouring village of Argalasti.

Paltsi is ideal for your summer holidays in Pelion, and the large sandy beach of Agios Konstantinos is popular with both locals and visitors from abroad. Paltsi also has some lovely walking paths which visitors can follow, taking them on a delightful journey through stunning green scenery and natural spring waters.

One site worth visiting is the monastery of Agios Athanasios, located a few kilometers before Lafkos. This monastery was built in 1795 and has lovely icons and decoration inside.
