Katerina Karoussos Exclusive was established by the designer Katerina Karoussos in 1990. Her activities include designing hats, women's' accessories and garments. Her products are displayed in European exhibitions and are exported in Russia and Japan. Also included are exclusive orders for the creation of hats, wedding gowns, christening outfits, theatrical costumes, as well as special orders of hats and accessories fitting Royal weddings and horse track races.

Katerina Karoussos graduated from the Drama department of the State Theater of Northern Greece but has worked in the fashion area for the past 40 years. She specialized in the millinery craft and graduated from F.I.T. (Fashion Institute of Technology) in New York. She worked with designers such as Carolina Herrera, Eric Javits and Liz Clairborne. Upon her return to Greece in 1990 she launched her own business designing hats and women's' accessories, famous for their fine quality, design and style.
